Through the years we have progressed together in harmony and friendship each time attaining more success and reaching higher goals than before. We look back only to find our mistakes and correct them, for we want to build a present and a future built on our past.

Traveling together through the iridescence of fall, the bitterness of winter and the freshness of spring, we have experienced many joys, and sorrows, successes and failures. But no matter how painful or how happy, each new encounter helps us to develop a clean mind and sparkling personality. We shall continue to journey together until we have achieved our ambitions.

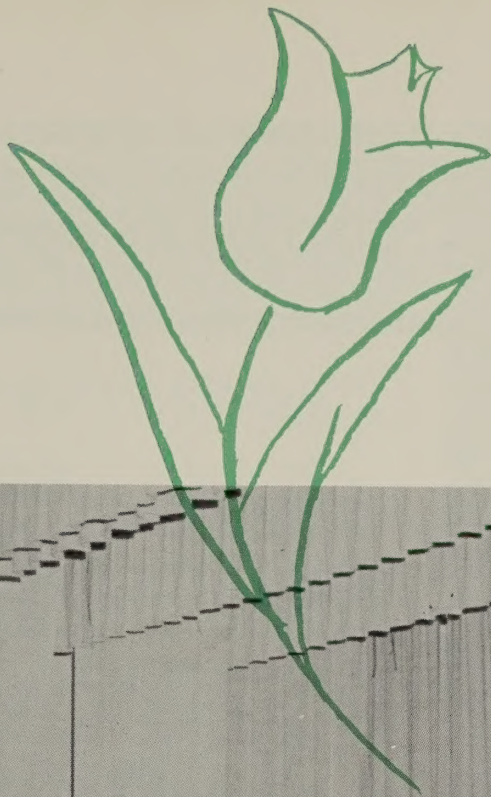

Although most of our memories are not written down, in the following pages we have tried to capture a tangible reminder of a few of the important memories of our past school year.

Alma Mater

Oh, Highland High School now to thee,
We sing our song of loyalty!
We sing thy glory and thy fame,
All praises to thy honored name.
Come and join us while we sing,
We'll make the nearby hillsides ring.
Our faith in thee will never die,
We'll always love thee Highland High.

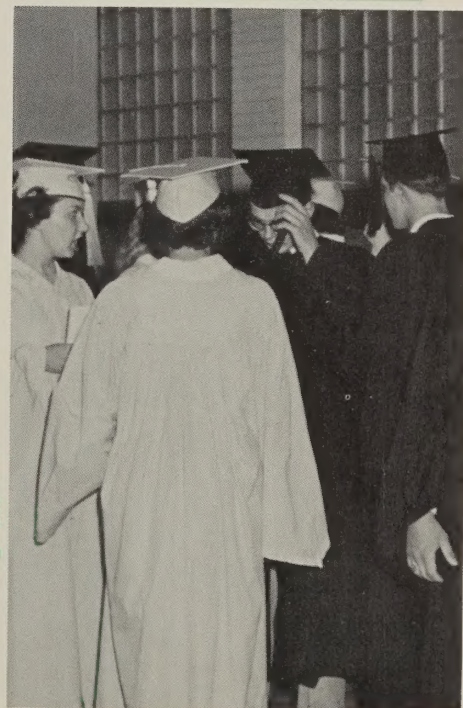

Spring is the time of lightheartedness and gaiety. It is the time when Mother Nature removes the cloak of a barren landscape and adds fresh new beauty to her trees and hills and skies.

Spring at Highland also means gaiety. Students remove the cloak of drudgery of the long winter and look forward to new sports, new spirits and first new proms.

Spring at our Alma Mater is climaxed by the seniors' commencement. But this is not the end, only the beginning.

Spring Activities 1960

Sports mean fun

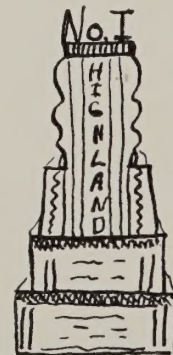

Bud Harshbarger accepts a letter from Coach Gienke.

Proud athletes accept awards at the Athletic Banquet.

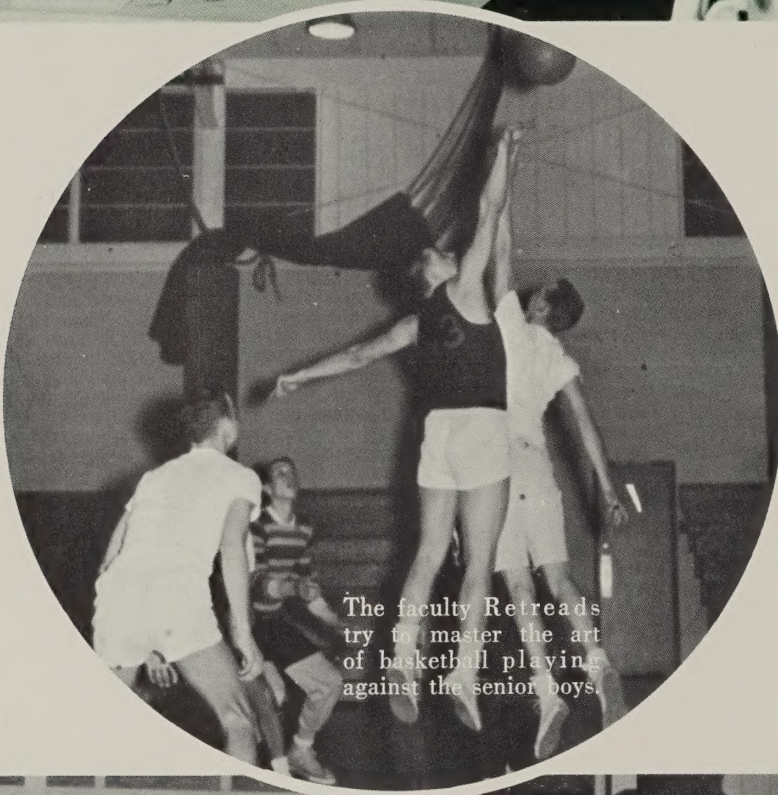

The awarding of letters to Highland's outstanding athletes takes place at the Athletic Banquet each year. Each coach recognizes his best players and congratulates them for their spirit and cooperation throughout the season. Featured at the 1960 Banquet was Mr. Marvin Frye.

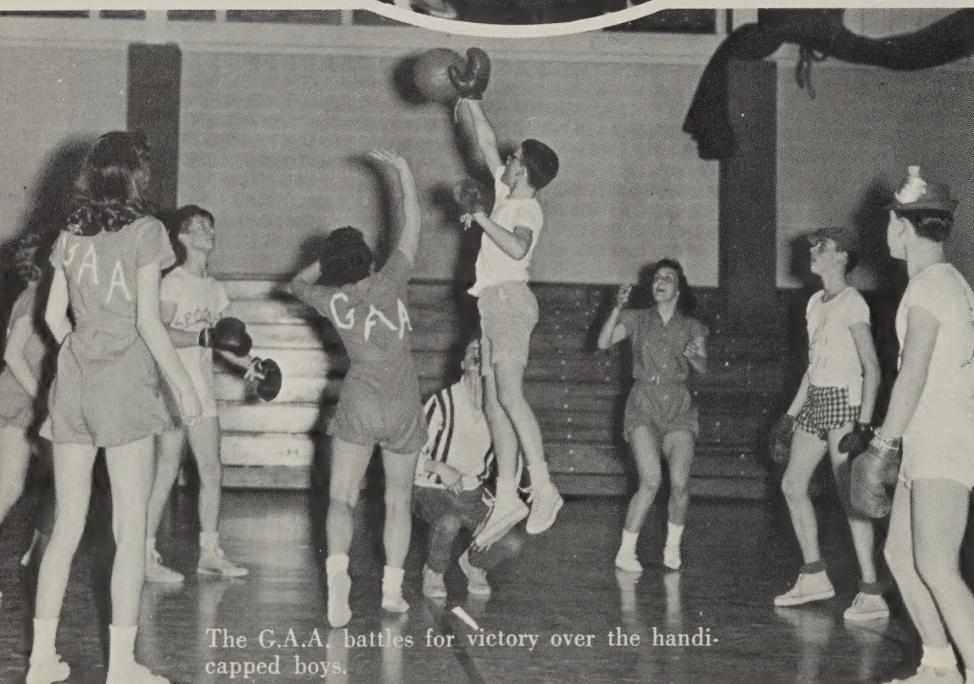

Mr. Marvin Frye, basketball coach from Heidelberg College speaks about the sacrifices one must make in order to have the honor of participating in high school sports.

The Senior-Faculty Game is one of the more humorous events on Highland's busy calendar. Principal participants in this game are the senior G.A.A. girls, the senior boys, and the faculty Retreads.

The faculty Retreads try to master the art of basketball playing against the senior boys.

The G.A.A. battles for victory over the handicapped boys.

at Highland

Donkeys are victorious over faculty.

Last year the Booster Club sponsored a donkey basketball game, the first one at Highland. The teams composed of the faculty, seniors, G.A.A., and Varsity H, played one another each quarter. The teams were dressed in their best uniforms and everyone retained the dignity that goes with the sport of Donkey Basketball.

The experiment proved a hilarious success producing both laughs and money to help buy lights for the football field.

Who is giving the hardest pull?

Stubborn as a mule was the motto of this night.

What goes up, must come down.

Determination is what one needs to mount this donkey!

Baseball lends another sport to Highland.

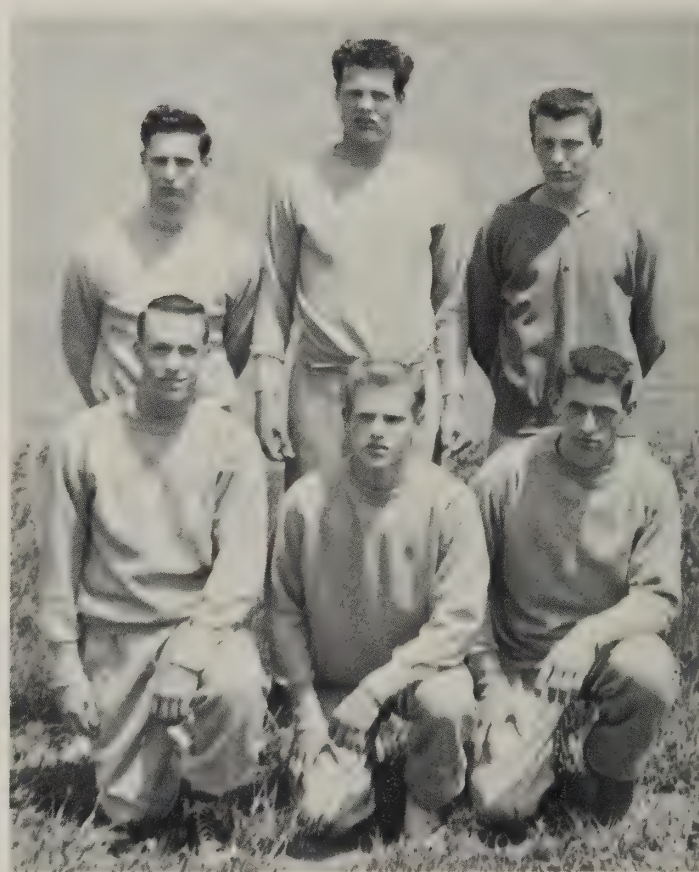

Eight games were played by the Highland baseball team last year. They were coached by Mr. Michener. The positions held by the boys were: Art Cartwright, second and third base; Jim Kosman, pitcher; Bill Beatty, first base; Bob Damon, right field; Rudy Zapotoczky, third base and left field; Jim Wagner, short stop; Tim Hood, catcher; Dave Cobb, second base; Jim Klesack, center field and pitcher; John Minch, center field; Jerry Kalmeyer, right field; Bob Schiele, center field; Jon Van Arsdell, short stop; Lance Copperman, right field; and Larry Krause, manager & outfield.

Track Team finishes third in county.

The Highland track team having taken top honors in the county for four years straight, had to settle for third place during the 1960 season. Several members of the Highland team did take firsts in the county meet. Dick Sponseller copped the high jump and pole vault. Bill Gray in the shot put, and Bill Renner in the pole vault were able to capture blue ribbons.

Other prominent members of the squad were Wilson Pritt and Tim Gallatin, miles; Larry Copperman, Dave Reiff, and Gary Burton, dashman; Dan Connors, high jumper; Larry Brandel, discus thrower; and Mike Galbraith, middle distance runner.

Highland's music groups present Spring Concert.

The chorus presented a number directed by Mrs. Day.

The freshman girls ensemble sang in part of the Spring concert.

Aiming toward perfection and reaching success, Highland delivered an excellent concert last spring with the help of both junior and senior high schools. Sharing the honors were junior and senior high choruses, girl's glee club, ensembles, bands, and soloists.

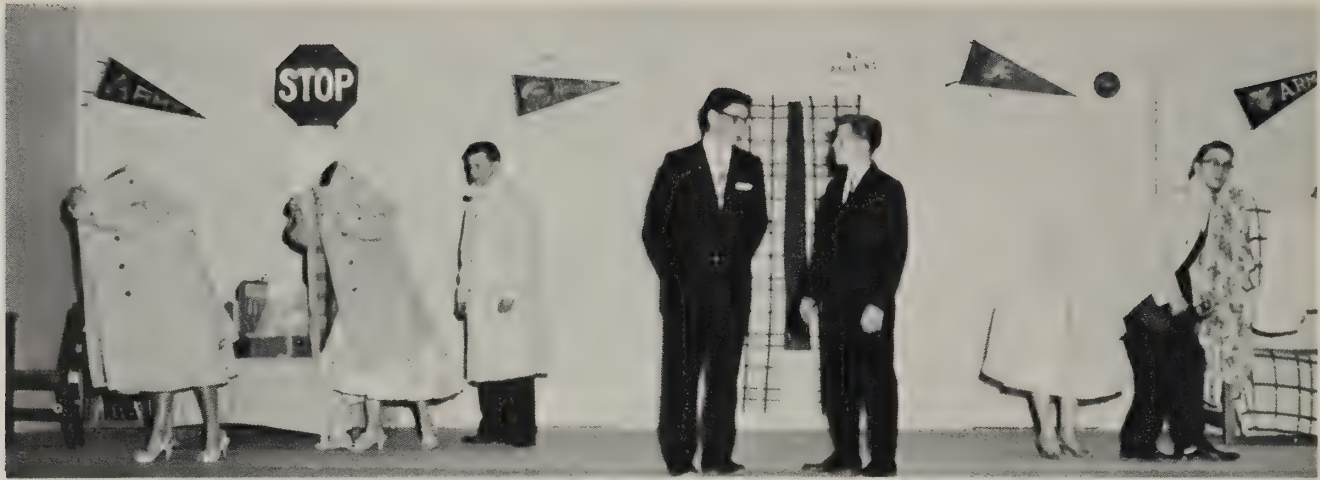

Mr. S. A. Stine addressed the student body in a general assembly on the Career Day activities.

Career Day prepares us for the future.

The students at Highland were given a good opportunity to think about future vocations while they listened to trained experts describe the aspects of varied professions

Students interested in law as a career discussed the pros and cons with Mr. Furlong.

While Bud distracts Dr. Reeber, the culprits make their exits. Terry Burton, Beulah Vermillion, Bob Warner, Chuck Zindle, Dave Reiff, Pat Kamps, Bud Harshbarger.

Ingredients—a prep school prom, a group of long dateless seniors and their girls, a strict principal, and a glamorous movie star. Treatment—generous mixing, a pinch of intrigue, and an ample amount of confusion. Result—a delightful comedy entitled "Best Foot Forward" directed by Mrs. Ludwig. All in all, the presentation turned out to be a great success as the juniors put their "Best Foot Forward."

A combination of jealousy and a desire for souvenirs leads to this most embarrassing situation. Cindy Sherman, Dave Reiff, Pat Kamps, Beulah Vermillion, Bud Harshbarger, Ed Liebenguth, Sandy Bodley, Bob Warner, Gail Davis, Terry Burton, Bob Abbott, Jim Gerberich.

← "Make that basket," was a familiar sound rising from the Student Council Carnival.

Surprised, Sue checks on the special door prize of the evening, the lamb. →

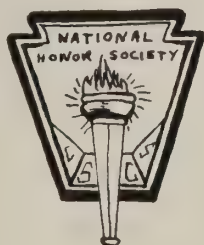

Student Council puts on Carnival.

One of the many duties of the Student Council is to sponsor a carnival. The 1960 carnival, planned and run by the Student Council members, proved to be profitable and fun for everyone. Many door prizes were given away, including a lamb as the special prize.

National Honor Society initiates new members.

Every spring the National Honor Society initiates its probationary members. Chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service, the juniors received their pins and took the vow of membership in an assembly open to all. They were thus pledged to uphold the high ideals of the Highland chapter of the National Honor Society.

May Day festivities

May Day proved to be much fun at Highland.

Mr. Gienke gives the signal for the beginning of the race.

Trying to win points for his class, each boy races to the finish line.

Our candid camera finds the students waiting for the next event.

Last spring we at Highland tried a new idea, sponsored by the Student Council. We held May Day festivities by playing team games in which each class competed for a trophy. Many races turned out to be hilarious events of fun for all those who participated. We hope to continue this event for years to come.

provide fun for all.

The May Dance added Beauty and charm to our school.

The attendants and their escorts await the Queen's Dance. They are: Pat Cekanski and John Girman, Doris Mong and Jerry Lucas, Sue Cobb and Tim Gallatin, Larry Brandel and Queen Terry Burton, Gary Burton and Pat Eckelberry, Don Akers and Sandy Bodley, and Dick Sponseller and Roberta Khoenle.

The queen of the 1960 May Dance, Terry Burton.

Delicately scented flowers decorated in umbrellas filled the air with beautiful aromas, the night of the 1960 May Dance. Even though the crowd was tense and everyone was awaiting the secret of who would be crowned queen, they made the gaiety of spring come alive. This dance was one of the many successful dances sponsored by the Student Council.

The 1960 "April Mist" Prom

The Juniors and Seniors enjoyed themselves while dancing to the music of Al Day.

Bowling was the popular sport at our Prom.

The 1960 Junior-Senior Prom with the theme "April Mist" began at Iacomini's in Akron with the banquet and dancing. From there everyone proceeded first to the movie, "Vertigo," then to the bowling lanes, then to breakfast, and finally home for a good day's sleep.

Was everyone still awake at breakfast time? We're not quite sure about these.

Excited Seniors leave for New York.

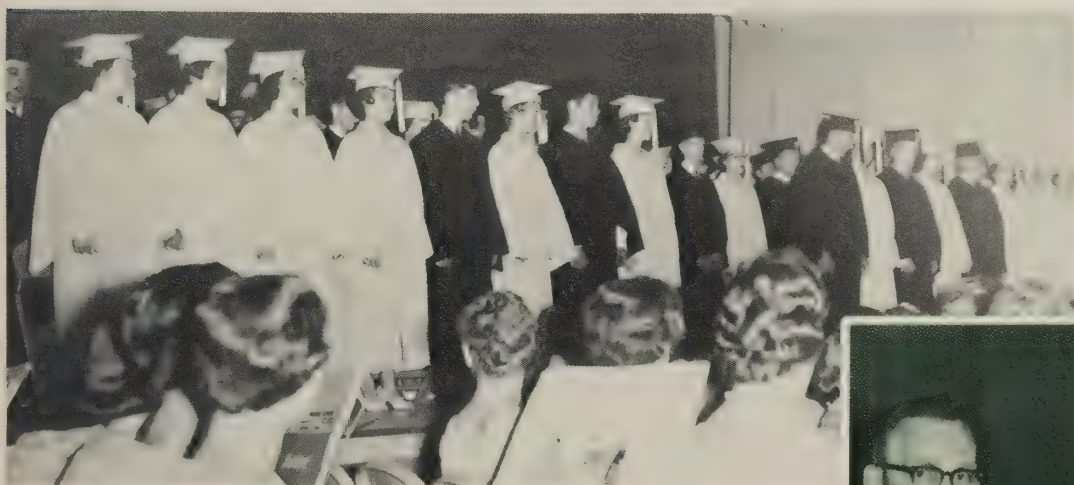

For four years the seniors worked to make a dream come true—their Senior Class Trip. Having earned the money, last May they left for a whirlwind tour of New York. They left the high school at 4:00 and boarded the train in Akron, Ohio . . . then to New York. They visited Rockefeller Center, Coney Island, The Empire State Building and many of the other sights visited by tourists each year. Four days later, the group arrived home, tired but happy, with more knowledge of the great city.

The class waits to load the bus and be on their way at last.

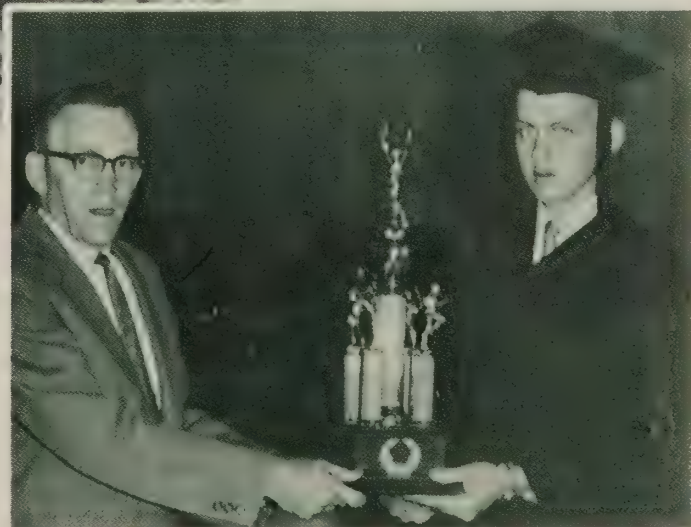

The Seniors board the bus and begin to fulfill a dream started four years before.

The seniors are presented to the student body.

At the Senior Awards Assembly each year, seniors receive awards for their achievements during their last high school days. They are presented as a whole to the student body for the last time before commencement.

Seniors accept awards for outstanding Scholarship and Sportsmanship.

Chuck Raw receives the Hardman Award from Mr. Gienke.

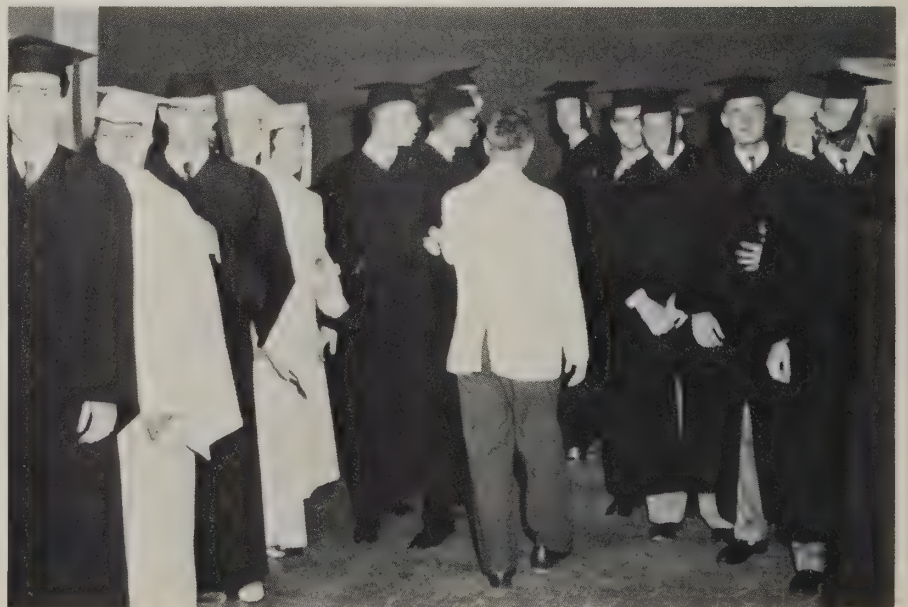

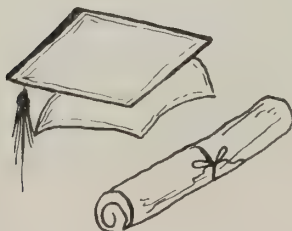

The 1960 Graduation.

The newly graduated Seniors of 1960.

The Seniors listen attentively to the speaker, Senator Ocasek.

May 24 marks a memorable occasion to many of our past classmates. After working for twelve years their schooling is climaxed by commencement.

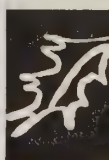

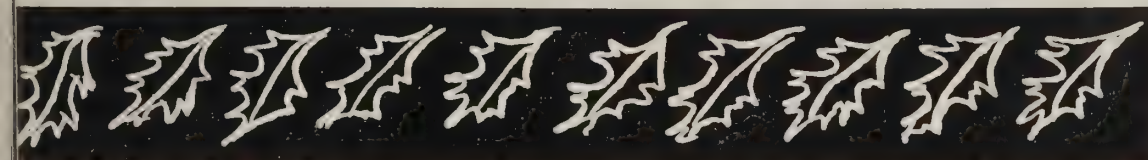

The Seniors stand in line to shake hands with congratulators.

Unlike Nature's cycle, fall is the start of a new school year at Highland. Our students return fresh from summer activities with renewed vows to work harder and to get better grades. The band and football team have already returned for pre-season practice.

In the cool mornings while the leaves are changing from green to gold, we hear talk of new teachers, new students, and new classrooms. The afternoons are filled with the rhythmic drum cadences and counting of the band as full rehearsals start. The thud of a foot meeting a football, quarterbacks calling signals, and coaches' whistles, all signify that football practice, too, is well underway. Yes, fall has surely come to Highland.

The School Board is pictured here as they hold one of their many meetings to discuss problems and the solutions to these problems to help better our school. They are: Mr. Edwin J. Kraus, Mr. Howard Cartwright, Mr. Glen D. Kaufman, President; Mrs. Evelyn Brunskill, Clerk; Mr. William Kelly and Mr. Alva G. Donkin.

Administration

Doing the Job We Like

Many a doctor sacrifices his health and strength in administering to others that they may have health again. The thrill that he gets from this service is a power of enjoyment to him that nothing else could give. And so he gives and sacrifices and is happy with his job.

So it is with all other efforts. If this power of enjoyment is kept a'live, it will carry one into a career of success and happiness.

The idea of doing the job we like holds good in all walks of life. But in doing that job we must not overlook the fact that the job must be done honestly and with full consideration for all mankind.

It is often said that a great deal of business is carried on without regard to the Golden Rule. Yet when an effort is made to apply it, there is a strange resurgence of good will between the parties involved and a spurt of stability and prosperity which simply doesn't exist among those who follow the dog-eat-dog method.

L. O. Vermillion, Superintendent

Age of Decision

President John F. Kennedy in his inaugural address launched our country into a "New Frontier." The success of this "New Frontier" depends so much upon every citizen assuming his own responsibilities, and knowing what he ought to do. "Ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country."

Following commencement, the decision is yours. For most of you your formal education is over. It is yours to decide whether you are going to be part of the problem or its solution. Be prudent as to whom you emulate. Stimulate your actions by clear thinking and not by emotion. Revitalize your spirit with positive thinking. Have courage to stand up for your own convictions. A man does what he must—in spite of personal consequences—that is the basis of all human morality.

Richard W. Chaffee, Principal

Faculty

Wilma Anderson (Oberlin College, A.B.; Western Reserve University, M.A. in Languages) is our teacher of first and second year Latin. She is one of our newcomers to Highland. The camera catches a shot of her with her first year Latin class.

Mrs. Anderson

Dorothy Day (Oberlin College, B.S. in Music; University of Northwestern, M.A.) is the vocal music instructor for our high school. She directs the girls' glee clubs, the boys' ensemble, and both the girls' ensembles. She also teaches a Freshman English class. Mrs. Day is shown here with her boys' ensemble.

Mrs. Day

Mr. Eckart

Lester C. Eckart (Baldwin-Wallace, B.M.E.; University of Michigan, M.M.E.) directs the marching band, senior concert band and the junior band at the junior high. He also gives musical instruction at the grade schools and the junior and senior high schools. The camera catches the band during one of their daily rehearsals.

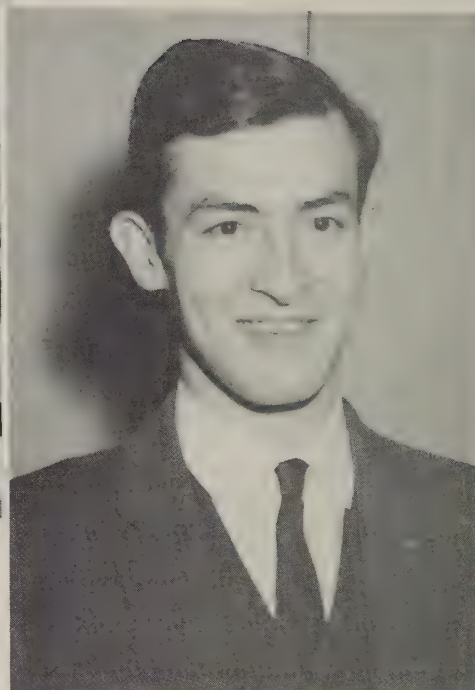

Mrs. Filak

Geneva S. Filak (Baldwin-Wallace, B.S. in Education) is in charge of the classes for our homemakers of tomorrow. She is also one of the Freshman class advisors. In the picture she gives the girls a helping hand with their sewing.

Birchard A. Furlong (Kenyon College, A.B.) is kept busy getting all of the news in the Hi-Lites organized and ready to go to press each month. He teaches journalism and classes in Freshman and Junior English and is also one of the Junior class advisors. The journalism class is shown reading over several different papers.

Mr. Furlong

Roy C. Gienke (Kent State University, B.S. and M.E. in Education) is the principal of the junior high and the guidance counselor for the high school. He is also the head of the athletic department. The camera catches him during one of his guidance conferences.

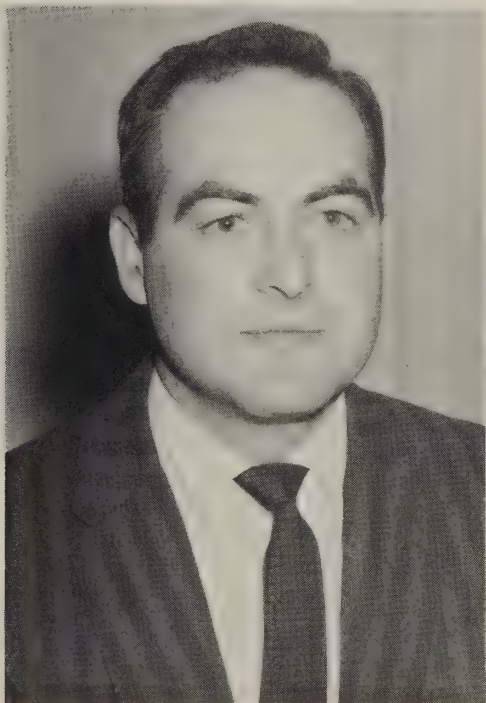

Mr. Gienke

Mr. Harmon

Al Harmon (Kent State University, B.S. in Education) teaches driver training, Junior and Senior shop classes, and physical education. He is also in charge of the audio-visual department. Among his extra curricular duties are assistant football coach, reserve basketball coach and Sophomore advisor. Here we see Mr. Harmon with a few of his future drivers.

Mr. Horn

William Horn (University of Kansas, B.S. in Education) is our head football coach, and he trains the freshman basketball team. In the academic department he teaches sociology and physical education. He is also a Sophomore Class advisor. Here we look in on his sociology class.

Edna Jedlicka (Baldwin-Wallace, B.A. in Education) takes over in the advanced math department. Mrs. Jedlicka teaches first and second year algebra, plain and solid geometry and trigonometry. She is also Y-Teens advisor and one of the Junior advisors. The camera shows a picture of her Geometry I class working at the board.

Mrs. Jedlicka

A. G. Kahl (Kent State University, B.S. in Education) is one of our social studies instructors. He teaches classes in consumer living and World History. He is also the National Honor Society advisor and one of the Senior class advisors. The camera catches a shot of his World History class as they listen attentively.

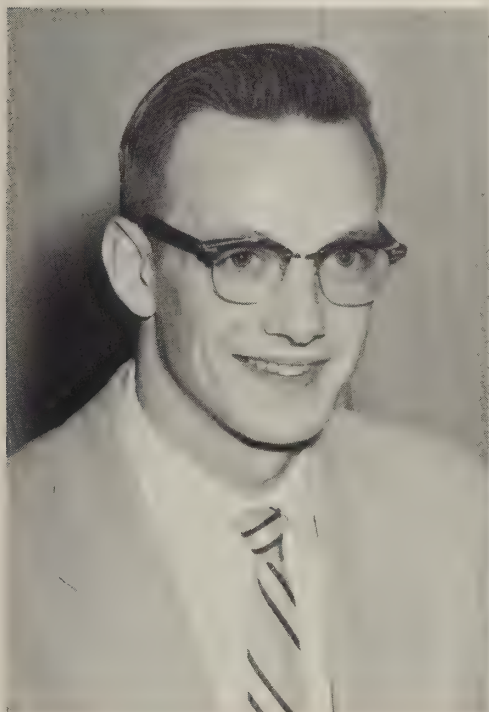

Mr. Kahl

Mr. Kemp

Mr. Kilgore

Robert E. Kilgore (University of Akron, B.A. in Education) heads our science department. He teaches biology, chemistry, and physics. He is also Science Club advisor and Junior class advisor. The camera finds his chemistry class hard at work.

Mary Lou Ludwig (Western Reserve University, B.A. in Education) budgets her time among these activities at Highland. She teaches a class in Freshman, Sophomore and Senior English. She also is director of the Junior and Senior class plays and is one of the Freshman advisors. The camera catches one of the acts of a play put on by her Senior English class.

Mrs. Ludwig

Beverly Melrose (Kent State University, B.A. in Art) helps the Highlanders bring out their artistic talents. She opens opportunities in modern art, ceramics, enameling and other interesting fields of art. The camera catches her with one of her art classes.

Mrs. Melrose

Mrs. Mullahy

Mary Ann Mullahy (Akron University, B.S. in Education) is our girls' physical education teacher. She is also G.A.A. advisor, cheerleading advisor and one of the Senior advisors. Our camera finds one of her gym classes in a fast game of basketball.

Mrs. Myers

Jean Myers (Kent State University, B.S. in Education) teaches first and second year Spanish and first and second year typing. She is in charge of the secretarial work done by the senior girls in the commercial department as a service to the school, clubs, and teachers. She is also annual advisor. The class is carefully concentrating on their typing.

*¡Buena Suerte
y Mucha Felicidad!
Mrs. Myers*

Margaret South (George Peabody College, M.A. in Library Science; West Virginia University A.B. in History) is our competent librarian. She is also one of the Freshman advisors. The library is a place where the students can prepare for their reports, compositions, and term papers.

Mrs. South

Clarence Wagner (Ohio State University, B.S. in Education) is our mechanical drawing and Freshman and Sophomore shop teacher. The camera finds the boys working on their projects in one of his woodworking classes.

Mr. Wagner

Mrs. Webster

The office secretarial work is accomplished by our secretary, Mrs. Webster. Although she may be working with school records, she is always willing to fulfill a request at any time. Our photographer catches her as she helps one of our students who request her services.

Mrs. Weigle

Rowlina Weigle (Western Reserve, A.B. in Education) teaches the basic fundamentals of science and math in her general science and general math classes. She is also one of the Freshman advisors and the F.T.A. advisor.

Gary Whitsel

Mr. Whitsel

Alice Williams (Baldwin-Wallace College, B.A. in Education) teaches Sophomore, Junior and Senior English. We see here an act of a play put on in her Senior English class.

Cooks

In charge of our modern kitchen is Mrs. Stein and Mrs. Golden. They do their best to prepare our many varied lunches. They are always there to help us during special occasions. To them we give our thanks for their effort and consideration.

Janitors

Mrs. Shirey, our Janitress; Mr. Brunskill, our custodian and Tom Slinker, who assists them from the student body all do their part in keeping our school neat and attractive. From the looks of the school they do a pretty good job—we could never get along without them.

Highland's Homecoming

Highland's fighting Hornets fought their way to this year's greatest victory the night of the Homecoming by handing Brunswick a shattering 22-8 defeat beneath the new football lights.

This victory, combined with the hard work of the Booster Club to install our new football lights, and the scoreboard donated by the senior class, made this the best homecoming ever.

Our Hornets battled hard against Brunswick and sent the Blue Devils home with a 22-8 defeat.

Co-captain, Bud Harshbarger, crowns Sue the 1960 Homecoming Queen.

Queen Sue is kissed by the two co-captains after receiving her crown and football.

Spells Victory

Beneath a bevy of fall colors, Queen Sue Cobb and the 1960 Homecoming Court reigned over the dance, which was held in the gym Saturday night after the game. The Hornet's victory added a great deal to the good time that was so evident at the dance.

Our lovely Homecoming Queen, Sue Cobb.

The Queen and her court: Ed Liebenguth and Cherry Nell, senior attendant; Rudy Zapotoczky and Becky Geiger, senior attendant; Bud Harshbarger and Sue Taylor, senior attendant; Bob Schiele and Queen Sue; Vivian Reeves, junior attendant, and Bill Renner; Noreen Snyder, sophomore attendant, and Dave Prochly; and Sue Scharff, freshman attendant, and Howdy Milligan.

These girls reigned over the Homecoming gaiety with charm and loveliness. They are: Sue Taylor, Cherry Nell, Becky Geiger, Queen Sue Cobb, Vivian Reeves, Noreen Snyder, and Sue Scharff.

Highland's 19

Message from the Coach

To become a member of the Highland High School's football team takes a great deal of sacrifice on the part of each player. Most of the players had to give up good paying summer jobs early so that they could play football. They also had to give up two weeks of their summer vacation plus many nights after school to become a part of this school function. The team members did this not because they had to do it, but because they wanted to do it.

With this submission by the players to their school and coaches, we want to thank them for giving us good, hard, exciting football. It is hoped that the 1960 football team will take from this school the fight, spirit, sportsmanship and teamwork that they learned so well on the playing field.

Highland's Band

These are the band officers for 1960-61: Roberta Khoenle, Secretary; Cathy Frase, Treasurer; Ginger Gabriel, Vice President; Allan Smith, President.

A band is a basic component of any successful football season. Highland's under the direction of Mr. Lester Eckart and led by head majorette Cherry Nell, is always on hand to cheer the team onto victory. But the band's activities do not cease with the onslaught of winter. A twenty-four piece pep band continues the task of keeping up school spirit by playing at the pep meetings. The band also participates in two concerts each year and is represented in the annual county music contest.

The band adds colorful entertainment to the annual Christmas Concert.

The majorettes that led our band this year were: Roberta Khoenle, Ginger Gabriel, Cherry Nell, head majorette; Joen Ardy, and Carolyn Becks.

Seniors take "Time Out for Ginger"

Prominent among the fall activities was the senior class play, "Time Out for Ginger," a light comedy about a teenage girl who goes out for the football team. The production was a great success and made the six weeks of rehearsals well worthwhile.

Terry Burton, as Ginger Carol, surprises her mother, played by Nancy Weidanz, and father, played by Rick Harris, by joining the high school football team.

A little bit of violence lends itself humorously to this scene.

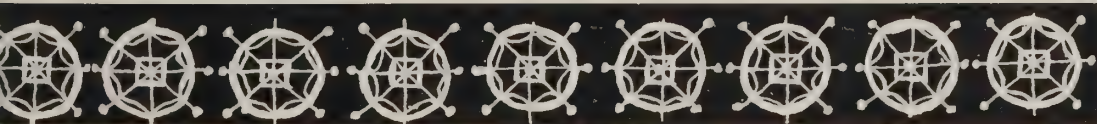

Winter has come with full force to Highland. Perhaps this is the busiest time in our school year, for we are all finally "in the full swing of things." Every week one of our schools' organizations is planning for dances, pep-meeting assemblies, and other activities.

But, as everyone knows, life isn't all play. Indeed we at Highland are certainly aware of this fact. From daily assignments to six-months-in-advance term papers, we students aren't left with many minutes to spare.

When we do find a little extra time, you can be sure that most of us will be seen at our basketball games.

Are we busy? Yes, but that is what makes our school days interesting and fun.

Basketball fans at Highland had little to cheer about during the 1960-61 season as all three high school squads ended up on the short side of the ledger. With the freshman squad garnishing only three of ten games, the reserve squad three of fifteen, and the varsity five of nineteen; it seemed a long time between victories for the Highlanders.

Nevertheless hopes remained high during the season and the cry could be heard from all over, "Wait 'til next year!"

Cheerleaders

The Reserve Cheerleaders this year were: Helen Nell, Gail Smith, Carol Petroc, Noreen Snyder, and Barbara Day.

Here the Varsity Cheerleaders perform at one of our football pep meetings.

This year our cheering department was led by eleven vigorous young ladies. They were the spark that lit the fire to our school spirit. They performed at all of the football and basketball games. At some of the pep meetings they provided us with humorous little stunts to raise our school spirit. They could be seen working on both new and old cheers after school hours.

Student Council

Mr. Chaffee, Advisor, Pat Kamps, Secretary, Joyce Collins, Vice President, Don Hoert, Treasurer, and Wilsen Pritt, President, discuss some of the problems that were presented to them.

The Student Council, a representative group of the student body, meets once a week to discuss any problems that arise or any suggestions concerning the school. They were able to purchase, through effort and hard work, an ice cream machine for the cafeteria.

First Row: J. McFarland, A. Smith, G. Jones, J. Winland, J. Wagner, M. Kennedy, R. Ford. Second Row: B. Geiger, J. Wanselow, D. Jones, M. Pelot, K. Hausman, C. Simpkins, M. Davis, B. Stunt Night

The date—December ninth. The place—the Highland gym. The object—to promote general hilarity. The event—Stunt Night. Sponsored by the Student Council, Stunt Night is an annual event in which all classes and clubs enter a ten minute skit based on anything from Roman gods to extemporaneous operations. This year the first prize was awarded to the sophomores for their take-off on Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Pat Kamps and Wilson Pritt "ad lib" between acts.

The halls swarmed with a conglomeration of Romans, slave drivers, half-wit doctors, and tattered hillbillies.

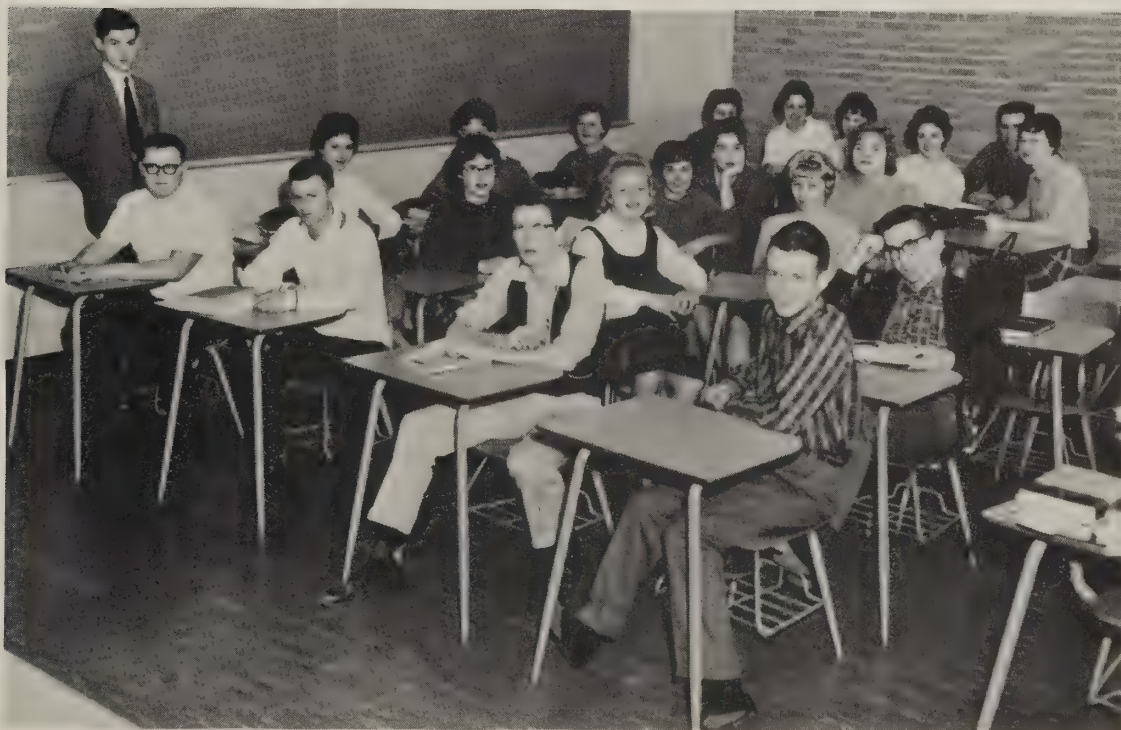

Pat and Wilson seem to be a bit distraught when these three talented seniors proceed to steal the scene between acts.

Hi-Lites Staff

The production staff of the Hi-Lites—Editor, Terry Burton, Pat Eckleberry, Pat Buettner, Myrna McAllister, Sally Dale, Dorothy Van Deusen.

The Hi-Lites is our monthly paper that is edited and produced by the journalism and office practice classes at Highland. The editorial staff is composed of the journalism class, and the production staff is composed of the office practice class. Each of these is equally important for the success of the newspaper. Mr. Kemp is the production advisor and Mr. Furlong is the editorial advisor.

First Row: Mr. Furlong, advisor; B. Abbott, A. Smith, A. Wall, B. Reimer. Second Row: M. McAllister; T. Burton, J. Maki, M. Glover. Third Row: S. Dale, P. Eckleberry, P. Annual Staff

Gail Davis, Business manager; Sue Cobb, Editor; Mrs. Myers, Advisor; Pat Thompson, Assistant Editor.

A salute goes to the annual staff for their long hours of diligent work in planning the annual. The work begins long before school opens in September when advertisements are solicited by the members. During the weekly meetings the staff plans the cover, and the mats are checked and double checked for accuracy. After a final check by the advisor, the mats are shipped to press. All that is left to do is to wait until May when the annuals arrive . . . and start on next year's annual.

Advertising Staff: G. Gabriel, C. Simpkins, L. Kramer, M. Davis, C. Frase. We would like to thank Pat Buettner, Becky Geiger, Bob Abbott, and Joyce Coleman for helping us.

Production Staff: Seated: P. Cekanski, S. Bodley, E. Shade, C. Hrbac, N. Olsen, P. Long. Standing: S. Taylor; C. Dusek, K. Legan, E. Myers, B. Potts, R. Khoenle.

Secretarial Assistants

These girls, who are planning to become secretaries, have a chance to get some experience by being a secretarial assistant. Some of their jobs consists of printing programs, doing typing for teachers and also helping the school office when needed. By doing this they can gain many valuable hints for a future job. Mrs. Myers is in charge of this group.

Photography Club

The Photography Club this year worked with the Annual Staff taking and developing pictures taken at extra-curricular activities. The group is under the supervision of Mr. Whitsel.

Elaine Shade, Claire Hooven and Mr. Whitsel, advisor. Alvin Whitacre, Gary Beohmerle.

Explorers' Club

The Highland Explorer's Club, in its second year, is composed of students interested in any field of science. Mr. Kilgore, the advisor, has helped the students on their projects and explained some of the mysteries of science. Under his guidance, they are taught a variety of things in the laboratory, such as mixing chemicals. The members participated in the Science Fair in April.

Future Teachers of America

This year the F.T.A. is under the advisorship of Mrs. Weigle. Besides counseling the girls on the proper subjects to take in order to become a teacher, she instills the attitude of devotion and sincerity in the hearts and minds of the girls. This year for the first time the F.T.A. were given the opportunity to observe a teacher for a day in the classroom. They have also substituted for elementary teachers.

First Row: Carole Hrbac, Vice President; Diane Jones, President; Cherry Nell, Secretary-Treasurer; Carolyn Becks, County Representative; S. Bodley. Second Row: Mrs. Weigle, Advisor; B. Potts, J. Raw, P. Cekanski. J. Strebler, P. Bailey, S. Mozena. Third Row: S. Bodley, B. Khoenle, P. Long, L. Tucker, M. Davis, J. Brown, C. Simpkins. Fourth Row: K. Hauseman, J. Collins, D. Mladek, J. Honor Students

Every six weeks Highland's honor students are designated as honor roll members if a 3.5 to a 4.0 average has been attained, or as merit roll members if a 3.0 to 3.5 average has been attained. These students deserve a place of accord for their diligent work in scholarship.

N.H.S.

To promote a program in which scholarship, character, leadership, and service are stressed is the main purpose of the National Honor Society. Members are Seniors and Juniors who maintain a 3.0 average or higher. The neophytes are nominated by the faculty in the fall of their Junior year and in the spring are inducted as members. Besides maintaining the average, the student's character, leadership, and service is considered. An honor plaque is displayed in the trophy case each six weeks designating honor roll members for that six week-term. Also the club gives a plaque to the homeroom with the highest point average for the six weeks.

Y-teens

The purpose of the Y-Teen club is to promote friendly social relationships among its members and to practice Christian principles. It strives to raise the ideals through religion and fellowship. Music, Devotions, and other activities are the main features of the meetings. This year the Y-Teen sponsored an All-County Dance that was held at our high school. The club also held a competition with Buckeye and then gave them a party.

Winter Concert

With all seriousness the Glee and Chorus present another tune for the Christmas Spirit.

This year the Winter Concert was presented by the Choruses, Ensembles, and Band, each respective group doing its job. For a spectacular finale the combined Choruses and Band displayed a well known "Christmas Story." The vocal department was headed by Mrs. Day and the Band was under the direction of Mr. Eckart.

In between the vocal numbers the Band plays several selections to add to the gayety and liveliness of the season.

Two of the girls sang a duet. Joyce Collins and Jeanette Strebler harmonize as the limelight is upon them.

Senior Class Prophecy

One Sunday afternoon Wilson Pritt was proceeding to his grandmother's house. As he entered her village, he saw a blobby object lying in the road, but it was too late to stop. Soon after, he accidentally ran across Bob Abbott with his bearskin on. From a near-by cave Elaine Shade frantically ran out to help the ever effervescent cave man. He then sent her back to her cave to beat the message on her animal skin to call the Police, led by the fearful leader, Dale Kasco, and his fearful foursome: Denny Day, Dave Reiff, Bob Schiele, and Rudy Zapotoczky. With these boys, the job should be a cinch. Ho ho, whom are we kidding!

They sped to the scene as fast as their dinosaurs could take them, with their mascot and part-time water boy, Joyce Coleman. They came to a halty stop and observed the situation. After clever observation on the part of Cindy Sherman, Dan Connors, and Jim Gerberich, they concluded that the car on top of the body must have led to the poor cave man's accident. Sarah Balke examined the body for footprints. Melvin Glover cleverly tried to take the pulse of the sunken cave man, but all he could get was the rhythm to "I'm All Shook Up." There was no sign of life in the mass of bearskin. The driver of the car was questioned as to the cause of the accident by those quick, cunning, foxy, detectives, Sally Dale, Sue Cobb, and Carol Estep. Pat Buettner and Peg Sewalish strapped Wilson to their armadillo and threw Wilson in the clink, right on top of Glenn Bean and Jim Wagner, who had also been thrown in because they had been drag racing their dinosaurs.

Wilson couldn't sleep that night because of the Cavenik party held by Chuck Zindle and Roger Pellet. As morning dawned, Cathy Simpkins brought him a tasty breakfast from her "Smelly Kitchen." Then he was carefully and cautiously dragged into the courthouse by Linda Brogan, and Carolyn Good, and whom should he find as the Supreme Judge but Rick Harris! The jury was a frightful group too, composed of Bill Young, Allan Smith, Cherry Nell, Linda Piero, Sandy Bodley, and Mary Ann Smith. It was obvious that a Cavenik party was attended by all and that there was still a faint odor of mosquito juice. Representing the defendant was the hot-headed, fightin' Gail Davis. Poor Wilson!

Everyone wanted to begin the trial, but the judge hadn't finished crushing ice for his toothache. Recording the case was Claire Hooven, who didn't get much done, because she had to take spastic pills every five minutes.

After a long and tedious examination, Terry (Sherlock) Burton revealed evidence that proved the victim had already been lying dead in the ditch, intoxicated, for his mosquito juice jug was found in a near-by ditch. Because of this evidence Wilson was acquitted. Everyone was waiting for Judge Harris's remark, but he wasn't through crushing the ice yet.

After the trial, Wilson proceeded to the Police Station to pick up his car which had been impounded. He then took it to Bill Renner's "Fender Bender Garage." The car was a complete mess. The victim had displaced the whole front end. This would call for some expert service on the part of the fanatics, Tim Gallatin, Tom Farkas, and Roger Lutz. After the completion of the repairs the stone wheels made the car tip forward, the windows now were on the roof, and the trunk, well it was non-existent.

After this marvelous repair job, the car was wheeled to the "Wash and Dry" shop of Don Akers and Rick Bush for a cleaning. Don washed and Rick dried.

Wilson then went into Janice Maki's marvelous Milk Bar, for a refreshing drink, (milk, that is). As he entered, he immediately noticed a string of girls doing their famous Cha Cha Cha. Those hotsy-totsy girls were Pat Eckelberry, Pat Kamps, Elaine Myers, and the spectacular Patt Scharff, led by the dazzling, high-swinging classy Buddy Harshbarger. The three bartenders, Hal Hildebrand, Joe Demeter, and Kenny Fleeman, were busy making their milk cocktails. Ed Liebguth was the very efficient bouncer. Diane Jones and Bob Jelen sang "Milk Gets in Your Mouth." Finally, Wilson got tired, and went to the local rooming cave to spend the night. He checked into the joint and was greeted by the desk clerk, Jim Schmidt, and his bags were taken to his nook in the wall by Carole Hrbac. He sent for some more blankets and his call was immediately answered by Phyllis Kreider and Bonnie Kennedy, who obligingly threw them through the door. He couldn't get to sleep because his bed was too short and his feet kept sticking out. So he called in the local carpenters, Jim Whitacre, Bob Warner, Larry Kramer, and their apprentice, Sue Taylor. They rapidly began to remake the bed to fit his big feet.

In the next nook, Jackie Girman, Fern Leatherman, Myrna McAllister, Becky Geiger, and Nina Olsen, were having a card party, and were making too much noise every time they would lay down a card. This aggravated our poor little man, and he became furious. He started to knock on the wall, and they knocked back, only they knocked the wall down! All were thrown out, baggage, cards, and remade bed. When Wilson heard the two policemen, Art Wall and Cliff Watson, blowing their whistles that they got for Christmas, he pulled himself together and started running toward his car, but it had been stolen by Dorothy VanDeusen, Nancy Weidanz, and Art Steinbrunn. What would he do? He then stole a dinosaur from Karen Hausman's "Used Dinosaur Lot," and quickly peeled away toward his grandmother's house. How did he know that the dinosaur had banana legs!

Wilson made it to her house, but as he took the last step to her door, he eagerly read the sign that was there. It said "Gone to visit my grandson." P.S. Didn't know he was Little Red Riding Hood, did you?

fun together
throughout your life. Love
Edith

Edith Jones,
One of the most gifted & brave, and with always remember. We've had lots of fun in college, and during together in the future we shall always share. May you always have life's best.
Your friend always,
Edith Jones

Dianne,

To a really nice girl. I've enjoyed being your friend and I hope I'm always apart of you. We've had lots of fun, especially during the S.C. elections.

Good Luck always,

Shirley

Dianne
To a real nice girl who is very smart.
Best of luck in the future to come

Dianne
To a "Teller" who is always telling us in trouble with the school. At the same time speaking of it. At the same time. Best of luck to you. Always
"62"

Dianne,
To a girl who had enough intellectual fortitude to run for Student Council President. Lots of luck next year. Wilson

Dianne
To a very nice girl for whom I wish the best of luck.
"62"

to Dianne,
a really good little girl. I wish you and her. I love you both!! I love you both!! I love you both!!

Dianne
To a very sweet
girl with a lot of brains
I'm sorry you weren't there about that

Dianne?
So, a very sweet friend I've gotten to know you better this year I'm glad. We've had lots of fun in classes, working on the prom, etc.
stay just as nice as you are, and you'll have the best.

CONGRADULATIONS!
ON N.H.S.

Dianne,
Congratulations
on N.H.S. You
sure deserve it.
You seem to succeed in whatever you want to do. Keep up the good work & best of luck in everything you ever want to do.

to Dianne
I love you
both!! I love you both!! I love you
both!!

I write,
to a very nice girl
I hope you had fun
at the S.C. rally.
Chuck

I cannot do a real nice girl who made a nice speech for president. We have had some disagreements but we have also had a lot of fun. Best Luck
 Bonnie

Hi Anne,
This really gives me a chill. The first annual Doves signs this year!!
Big DEAL. Play it cool and Lots o' Luck.

Roc Ford

Dianna,
I guess I'll have to write P.O.
since I don't have anything to say.
Good luck

Diane,
Usually I write nasty things in annuals (skinning, of course) but since you are a fellow campaigner - lover,
I'll just say - Lots o' Luck.
Roe Ford

Diane,
To a nice underclassman.
Keep up those grades and all the other good work.
Best of luck.

Dearest
Well, the time has come for us to say so long. May God bless you and keep you safe. I shall never forget you. You're really a swell kid - give people a chance to find it out. Please remember Sandy
'61

Wagone,
I was very glad to hear that you have made A.H.S. you deserve to be in
it. "Congratulations!"
I hope you enjoyed the Student Council assembly as much as we enjoyed putting it on.
I want to wish you much luck in your last year here at Highland and in your future years out of school -

Alvance
